

Istanbul, Turkey

Tim and Anna

City Inspiration

- Hagia Sophia
- National colors of red, white, turquoise
- Empires that ruled in Istanbul
  - Ottoman Empire
  - Byzantine Empire
- The city connects Europe to Asia
- Bosphorus Strait, Sea of Marmara
- Myth of 7 hills make the city
  - Actually more than 50 hills

Future Considerations

- Temperatures are expected to increase
- Istanbul is at risk of earthquakes, so the city is working on having more earthquake-resistant architecture
- Several historical sites are being restored
- Planning on converting to a clean city with emission-free buildings, green roofs, recycling, and a significant reduction to carbon emissions
- Rising sea levels may submerge parts of Istanbul, including significant historical landmarks
- New railway that will connect Istanbul and Bulgaria
